PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

Brothers,

I hope everyone had an enjoyable Christmas and I wish everyone a healthy and Happy New Year.

Now we are ready to start the Saint Patrick’s Day season. It was my pleasure to accompany the Orange County Aide to the Grand Marshal, Robert Burns to the Meet the Grand Marshal event at the New York Athletic Club. Mary Higgins Clark gave a nice speech and will do an excellent job as the Grand Marshal. This year will be the 250th anniversary for the Parade. Make your plans early to get the day off and join us at the Parade this year. It is a great feeling walking up 5th Ave. with the contingent that once again was chosen as the Best AOH marching unit.

We had our installation of Officers for the 2011 Board at the December 10th meeting. Brother Jim Kelly presided over the ceremony and our thanks go out to him for assisting us that night. The Board for 2011 will be John O’Grady- President ; Keith Reynolds-Vice-President; Neil O’Riordan –Recording Secretary; Ed Dennehy – Treasurer; Mike Carroll – Financial Secretary; Bill O’Donnell – Standing Committee; Tom McCarthy – Marshal; Tim Curtin – Sentinel. I am looking forward to working with them for the year.

The Annual Kid’s Christmas Party was held on December 19th and although Santa was saddened by a Giant debacle he was able to muster several Ho Ho Ho’s and the children had a grand time. We also had the Early Bird drawing for Ireland’s 32. Please get your tickets paid for as soon as possible and if you are looking for tickets contact Bill O’Donnell to be placed on the waiting list.

We will be hosting a 7 Card Stud fund-raiser on Saturday January 29th at 7:30 PM at the Hall so why not come out and see if you get lucky.

While we look forward o the coming year we also need to remember our members who passed away over the course of 2010. Brothers William F. Neilan(4/13), Gerald V. Conlon(7/6) and long-time member Gregory F. Early(11/25). Remember them in your prayers and all of our Family and Friends that passed over the past year. Our next meeting will be Friday January 14th at 7:30 PM. Remember to bring a non-perishable item for the Food Bank, or a new member, but most of all yourself. I look forward to seeing you then.

Yours in Friendship, Unity and Christian Charity.

St. Brigid of Ireland

Patron of the Ladies Ancient Order of Hibernians February 1 is the feast of St. Brigid of Ireland, often called Mary of the Gael. Her feast day is one of the official holy days of the Ladies Ancient Order of Hibernians, Inc. Hibernians throughout the country gather annually for celebrations in her honor. St. Brigid's life was a remarkable one, next to St. Patrick she is the most revered saint in all of Ireland.

Brigid was born in a society ruled by the old Gaelic Order and the Druidic religion. St. Patrick had already reached Ireland, and was in the process of changing all that, but though his message had reached the court of Dubhtach, the powerful Leinster Chieftain held firm to the old religion. In his religion, one of the most powerful Goddesses was Brid or Brigid, the Goddess of Fire whose manifestations were song and poetry, which the Celts considered the flame of knowledge. Her feast day was the first festival of the year and was held on February 1. It was the beginning of Spring; the working season for farmers and fishermen, and a time of husbanding of animals, and the Celts called on Brid to bless their work, and bonfires were lit in her honor. Brigid grew in beauty, and her love for all of God's creatures knew no bounds. Even as a young girl Brigid evinced an interest for a religious life and took the veil in her youth from St. Macaille at Croghan and probably was professed by St. Mel of Armagh, who is believed to have conferred abbotial authority on her. Needing a place to establish the first community of religious women in Ireland, Brigid settled on Kildare, and about the year 470 she founded a double monastery at Cill-Dara (Kildare) and was Abbess of the convent, the first in Ireland. Her monastery was at the site (coincidentally) of a shrine to the Celtic Goddess Brigid. In time the eternal flame that virgins had guarded for the Goddess was tended instead by nuns who dedicated it to Christ. She extinguished the ritual fire of the Druids, and lit a flame dedicated to Christ which was thereafter maintained by her followers until it was doused by the forces of Henry VIII. Brigid died at Kildare on February 1 in 525 AD, she was laid to rest in a jeweled casket at Kil Dara. In 835, her remains were moved to protect them from Norse invaders, and interred in the same grave that holds the remains of St Patrick and St Columcille at Downpatrick. She is sometimes known as Bridget, Bride and Mary of the Gael. Her feast day is February 1st.
